	It was noted that the last full Council had agreed to proceed with the improvement works to the Docks which would be funded by the Cala Homes donation and CIL funds. It was felt no that no other maintenance works were required at this time.
7	Grass Create Old Dean/ Bovingdon Green
	It was noted that estimates had been received and a contractor chosen, however Cllr Steer was to seek further confirmation from the DBC parks and open spaces officer that he had objections before works could proceed.
8	The Pond on Bovingdon Green/Grant
	It was noted that Cllr Schneiders had agreed to contact the chosen contractor to progress the previously agreed dredging works. Cllr Barnett volunteered to contact Taylor Wimpy to see if they would be prepared to fund further works to the Pond.
9	Hanging Baskets, Window flowers/ Bovingdon Gardner's
	It was agreed by all that the hanging baskets were a great success and that we should continue with these in 2026/2027 however noting that HCC had placed some restrictions on the number of lamp posts that can accommodate the baskets. It was also agreed to continue to support the Horticultural society with their hanging baskets and it was suggested that the price could be increased to
